

PROCLAMATION

National Historic Preservation Month 2017

WHEREAS, historic preservation is an effective tool for growth and sustainable development, revitalizing neighborhoods and downtowns, fostering local pride, and maintaining community character while enhancing livability; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, and for people of all ages, all walks of life, and all ethnic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, it is important to celebrate the role of history in our lives and the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the tangible aspects of the heritage that has shaped us as a people; and

WHEREAS, the history of places are meaningful whether those places are community churches, elementary schools, a barn on a family farm, or the corner store; and

WHEREAS, "This Place Matters" Is the theme for National Historic Preservation Month 2017, and encourages our communities to shine a light on the history of places that played a role in their lives, the places that connect people to the past and the present;

NOW THEREFORE, we do proclaim May as National Historic Preservation Month in Platte County, Wyoming and call upon all our citizens to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing this special observance and to get involved in shining a light on our tangible history.
